Be a Standout and Land That Job

Author : ecxmlrpc

Date : January 24, 2012

Landing that dream job takes a little more than simply submitting a resume. Be prepared for the position by: checking all of the qualifications, check on the progress of the application, be prepared to answer any and all questions, and always reply promptly. Those that are prepared and obviously interested, are more likely to impress any employer and get the position they are seeking.

Read the full article here:
5 Tips To Really Standout & Land A Job - Jobmouse