Get a New Job in 2012

Author : ecxmlrpc

Date : January 24, 2012

With the New Year, comes a new incentive to get out and get that new job. There are some rules to follow, however, to make the search easier and more effective. Updating the resume is one of the first things on the list. Combined with networking, social media contacts, working with a recruiting agent, and a lot of patience and determination, chances of landing that new position are highly increased.

Read the full article here:

5 tips to help you land a new job in 2012 - Oneonta Daily Star