or column: Sharpening your resume writing skills

Author : ecxmlrpc

Date : August 13, 2012

If you are planning to move up in your career, then that is the case, you need some good resume writing tips.Here are some well-established resume writing tips. They will guide you in how to articulate personal details clearly. State your full name, phone number, temporary and permanent address, and email address;Outline your educational qualifications.

Read the full article here:
Kantor column: Sharpening your resume writing skills - Naples Daily News