Interview Tips Shared by UM Faculty, Staff

Author : ecxmlrpc

Date : October 6, 2012

We all want to be successful in everything we do. In competitions, we want to be at the top, and in interviews, we want a high score. Attending for an interview is not a simple matter and if you are in front of the interview board, but found yourself tongue tied, no doubt, you need professional training to overcome your fear and improve your confidence. Improve your personality and efficiency with the effective tips from faculty and staff at the University of Memphis.

Read the full article here:
UM faculty, staff share interview tips - Daily Helmsman