Agency is Offering a Helping Hand

Author : ecxmlrpc

Date : January 11, 2013

Johnston-Lee-Harnett Community Action based in Smithfield offers seminars for people who are unemployed and deep in debt. Many of the people who attend the seminars also have bad credit scores, and as a result cannot find even low paying jobs. The seminars offer tips on reducing energy costs, how to maintain a good credit score and wise spending.

Read the full article here:
Agency offers helping hand - TheHerald